Lodging

Participants are responsible for their own lodging while attending the institute. The host hotel for the institute is Sunset Station Hotel & Casino. A block of rooms is available for $64/night, plus tax, for the nights of June 24–27, 2012. Room rates are guaranteed until May 24, 2012, so make reservations soon. Call 888.786.7389, choose Option 9, and ask for the group rate for Silver State AP Summer Institute, group code SCISSAP. You may also book online by selecting the book online link on the Lodging page at www.silverstateap.net. Additional information about Sunset Station Hotel & Casino can be found at www.sunsetstation.com.

Transportation

Participants are responsible for their own transportation to and from Las Vegas. Free transportation is provided between Sunset Station and the institute daily. No daily transportation to/from the institute is provided from other locations. Busses will be available to go directly to McCarran International Airport after the institute concludes on Thursday, June 28. Luggage storage will be available at Green Valley HS on Thursday, June 28.

Food & Beverage

A continental breakfast will be available in the school cafeteria each morning before institute sessions. Lunch will be served daily in the cafeteria. Bottled water is available in the cafeteria throughout the institute.

University Credit

Two semester hours of graduate credit are available from University of Nevada-Las Vegas. The cost is $90 for Nevada residents or $130 for non-residents, plus a one-time $30 Non-degree Student application fee. Registration instructions may be accessed from the Silver State AP Summer Institute website, www.silverstateap.net. Registration will open in April 2012, and you must register for credit by June 15, 2012. Participants who have taken a given session for credit 3 or more times are ineligible for graduate credit.

Certificate of Attendance

Each participant receives a certificate of attendance verifying the number of hours of instruction received at this endorsed College Board Workshop. Full attendance is 30 hours.
